CONSTANTINOPLE, Auguſt 24.

ALL Things have been very quiet here for ſome Weeks paſt. The Sultan, who went to one of his Country Palaces on the other Side of Marmora, came back from thence to Beſiktagi, another Palace on the Channel of the Black Sea. The Grand Signior's Return has been follow'd by a Change in the Miniſtry. The Kiaia-Bey, who is the firſt Man in the Miniſtry next to the Grand Vizir, with whom he ſtood but upon indifferent Terms, has been depoſed, but not exiled, and his Poſt is given to Mehemet-Effendi, Tefterdar, or High Treaſurer, of the Ottoman Empire. Ougoun-Bay, who had the Direction of the Cuſtoms, is become High Treaſurer. It is thought that theſe Changes will be follow'd by ſome others; but, however, we may ſay they will not take Place very ſoon; for the Ramaſan begins this Day, which is a Kind of Lent, obſerved with ſo much Devotion by the Turks, that they account it a great Sin to eat any thing before Sun-ſet. During this Time of Faſting, they alſo abſtain from Intrigues, and all weighty Affairs are at a Stand. So that we cannot know, till the Ramaſan is over, what may be the Conſequences of the above mentioned Changes in the Miniſtry.

All thoſe ſudden and unforeſeen Changes, which are the Effects of Intrigues and Cabals in the Seraglio, very much perplex the Miniſters of Foreign Powers. It is ſeldom they can build on any regular Syſtem at this Court. When they imagine the Grand Vizir, or any other Miniſter, ſecure enough in his Poſt to take their Meaſures in Conſequence, they unexpectedly find themſelves miſtaken by a ſudden Change, which, diſconcerting their firſt Plan, obliges them to caſt about for a new Scheme.

Peterſburgh, Auguſt 24. The Board of Admiralty having been informed of a great Relaxation in executing the Marine Ordonnance iſſued in 1737, concerning Merchantmen entering into the Ports of this Empire, has publiſhed a Proclamation, ordering it to be ſtrictly obſerved for the future; eſpecially the 3d and 19th Articles; whereby it is ordered, that when the Maſter of a Veſſel comes to an Anchor in the Port he is bound to, he ſhall deliver to the Cuſtom-houſe Officers a Liſt of his Crew and Paſſengers, and alſo an exact Account of his Cargo, without concealing any one Thing, upon Pain of being puniſhed according to the Maritime Laws of Ruſſia: That all Maſters of Foreign Ships entering any Port of the Empire, ſhall alſo declare to the Admiralty, or the Officers appointed, the Paſſengers they have brought over, and alſo ſuch as want to go out of the Empire with them, upon Pain of paying a Fine of Fifty Crowns: And if the Maſter of a Veſſel takes on board any Perſon charged with Felony, or any other weighty Miſdemeanor, knowing the Caſe to be ſo, he ſhall receive the ſame Puniſhment as ſhould be inflicted on the Criminal, and his Ship ſhall be confiſcated.

Bruſſels, October 5. A Diſpute having ariſen between the People of Mechlin and thoſe of Louvain, the former having already hindered the latter from proceeding in their Work of cutting the new Cannal from Louvain to Mechlin, on Pretence that the People of Louvain had not paid them the Sums agreed on for Leave to cut through their Grounds and Gardens, and his Highneſs Prince Charles of Lorrain having examined into this Affair, has made a Decree in Favour of the People of Louvain, whereby the People of Mechlin are ordered to ſuffer the Workmen to go on peaceably with their Work, and promiſing that thoſe of Louvain ſhall be obliged to pay them the Sums agreed for in the Month of March next at fartheſt. On the 29th paſt, two French Commiſſaries arrived here from Paris, with Orders to diſcharge all the Debts the French contracted in the Province of Brabant, during the late War. By Letters from Paris of the 2d of October, we are informed, that Orders are ſent to all the Intendants of the Provinces, to make out Liſts of the Revenues of the Eccleſiaſticks, and in caſe of Refuſal, to ſeize on their Temporalities. The ſame Letters ſay, that the Abbe de Res, whom the King had named Almoner to the Meſdames, has been turned out of that Employment, on Account of his having aſſiſted at the Aſſembly of the Clergy.

Algiers, (in Barbary) Aug. 27. On the 22d paſt, a French Veſſel, with about ſeventy Paſſengers on board, came to an Anchor in this Road, from Tetuan, and a Report being immediately ſpread, that the Plague was on Board, the Dey gave Orders that no Perſon ſhould come on Shore, and agreed with the French Conſul that the ſaid Veſſel ſhould perform a Quarantine of forty Days; but as Mr. Keppel, the Britiſh Commodore, took it into Conſideration, that as thoſe People were abſolutely ignorant of the Laws of Quarantine, and conſequently had neither Regulations nor Officers adapted thereto, that there would be the greateſt Danger of the Infection's being introduced by ſome raſh Attempt or other of the Paſſengers, he therefore repreſented to the Dey, that the important Command his Britannick Majeſty had entruſted him with, obliged him to remonſtrate to his Highneſs, that he could by no Means think of ſtaying one Moment in the Bay, unleſs that Veſſel was ordered away immediately; upon which the Dey ſent that Inſtant for the French Duggerman, and gave him Orders to ſend the Veſſel away directly, which was done accordingly, not only to the Britiſh Commodore's, but to the Satisfaction of almoſt the whole City. On Friday the 27th paſt, about Ten at Night, the whole City was under the greateſt Conſternation, by the blowing up of one of the Caſtles, in which were, as 'tis ſaid, about fifteen Barrels of Powder; but as the Caſtle ſtood upon a Hill above the Town, and was built chiefly of Earth and Mortar, the City received no material Damage; but as for the Caſtle itſelf, nothing but the Ruins remain. Two or three contiguous Country Houſes were thrown down, and about twenty People in all killed. The Cruizers of this Place did very little the laſt Cruize, having only taken a ſmall Portugueze Veſſel, loaden with Salt; another with 124 Cheſts of Sugar; a Neapolitan with Spart, whoſe Crew eſcaped in their Launch; a ſmall Veſſel with Oil, and Tunny Fiſh. They are now all out again. The annual Daniſh Ship, with Powder, Naval Stores, &c. is arrived, and 'tis ſaid has brought all agreeable to Treaty.

Amſterdam, Sept. 28. We have been informed by our laſt Advices from Paris, that the French Court has lately received very large Remittances from Spain, which Money 'tis aſſured, is to be particularly employed in re-eſtabliſhing the Marine of France, which begins already to be in ſuch a Condition as to occaſion ſerious Reflections to be made thereupon by the Engliſh Nation, which is very attentive to every Thing of that Nature that is done by the Crown of France, tho' it be only in order to ſhelter the Commerce of its Subjects from being interrupted by the other, in Caſe of a freſh Rupture between the two Crowns, which may poſſibly be nearer than it is generally apprehended to be, on Account of the Pretenſions that the Engliſh are continually forming in the Neighbourhood of the French Eſtabliſhments in America, where the Court of Verſailles now perceives that it has let them become too powerful, eſpecially in their New Colony of Nova Scotia, which is too near a Neighbour to Canada and L'Iſle Royal, or, as the Engliſh call it, Cape Breton. It muſt be confeſs'd that the French reſtored this whole Province to the Engliſh, by the Peace of Utrecht, which has been confirmed by all ſucceeding Treaties; but it is now found that it was impolitick to have been ſo facile in that Reſpect, and Circumſtances having changed, 'tis natural for Maxims to change likewiſe. From whence it is greatly to be feared, that this Nova Scotia will, ſooner or later, be a Bone of Contention, and very likely before moſt People imagine.

Madrid, Sept. 29. Though Mr. Keene continues very aſſiduouſly his Conferences with the King's Miniſters, they have not yet been able to agree about any definitive Arrangement with reſpect to the Navigation of the Engliſh in the Weſt-Indies. 'Tis an Object liable to ſo long a Diſcuſſion, and ſo many Difficulties, that it is even acknowledged here, they cannot be got over but by Means of ſome Expedient, which might procure to the Engliſh the Liberty they demand, and by Means of which their Ships ſhould never more be viſited by his Majeſty's Garda de la Coſtas. As this would be a great Advantage to them, and a Sacrifice on our Side, it is conſider'd, that in order to make Matters even, that Sacrifice ought to be compenſated by ſome Advantage equivalent to the former. The Publick endeavour alike to gueſs where ſuch an Equivalent might be found, and can find nothing ſatisfactory but Gibraltar, this Suppoſition, that the Iſland of Minorca, ſolidly guaranteed to the Engliſh, would be ſufficient for the Security of their Navigation in the Mediterranean.---Of what Uſe are Guarantees? None at all, except to prove, that moſt of the Rules of the World either have no Senſe of Honour and Honeſty, or elſe think No-body has Eyes but themſelves. It is, indeed, high Time to leave off treating and guarantying, and only conclude Truces, when they are weary of fighting, inſtead of Chriſtian Treaties of everlaſting Peace, which they mean to break while they are ſigning and ſealing.

Bruſſels, October 19. Within this Fortnight a Report prevails here, that Oſtend will ſoon be made a free Port.

Peterſbourg, Oct. 3. The Court having been inform'd by an Expreſs diſpatch'd from Finland, that the Swedes were conſiderably encreaſing the Magazines erected for their Troops in divers Parts of that Province; her Imperial Majeſty has in Conſequence, ſent Orders to her Generals, not only to fill the Magazines we have already erected in that Country, but alſo to form ſeveral new Ones, that we may not be catch'd unprovided, in caſe any Turn of Affairs, on the Side of Turkey, ſhould ſet the Swedes and Pruſſians in Motion ſooner than is at preſent expected.

An Extract of a Letter from Paris, October 4.

"The People here can by no Means digeſt the Continuance of the Taxes, almoſt as burthenſome as in Time of War; they cannot comprehend the Reaſon of it, and therefore, as it is uſually the Caſe, they fall foul on the Miniſtry, and make heavy Complaints of their Conduct. If, ſay theſe Murmurers, they had made ſuch a Peace as would have gained the King any Thing from his glorious Conqueſts, or that it had given ſome Eaſe to the People, every Body would have been ſatisfied; but neither the one nor the other has been done, the Taxes ſtill continue, Commerce languiſhes, particularly in the interior Part of the Kingdom, as all the Letters from the Provinces teſtify. But there is no Myſtery in all this: For the principal Deſign of the Miniſtry is to put the Naval Force of the King, in a reſpectable Situation, upon a Suppoſition, that if this can be brought about, his Majeſty would gain more by it, than if he had kept Part of the Low Countries; and, to effect it, conſiderable Sums muſt be employed, and conſequently the Taxes continued."

BOSTON, January 14.

Thurſday laſt the Great and General Court of Aſſembly of this Province met here, when his Honour the Lieutenant Governor was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH to both Houſes, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives,

SINCE the laſt Seſſions I have repeatedly prorogued the General Aſſembly, that ſo you might attend the publick Buſineſs at a Seaſon of the Year when I imagined your private Affairs would ſuffer the leaſt Inconvenience by your Abſence from Home: This cauſes your coming together to be ſomewhat later than uſual: I hope therefore that with Application and Unanimity you will give the greater Diſpatch to the Affairs that may come before you.

I am glad I can acquaint you, that no Hoſtilities have been offer'd us by the Indians upon our Frontiers, ſince the Riſing of the Court: The Tribes of Penobſcot and Norridgewock deny their having had any Share in the late Rupture, and expreſs their Deſire to continue in Peace with us.

I ſhall endeavour to obtain Satisfaction for the Injuries done to us by the other Tribes, who live near the Borders of Canada; and to bring them again into a State of Friendſhip, if it can be done conſiſtent with the Honour of the Government.

I have wrote to the Governor of Canada, complainining of the Encouragement given by the French to thoſe Indians to moleſt us, and demanding a Releaſe of our Captives; who I am informed were carried to St. Francois, and expected Capt. Stevens would have gone forward with my Letters, but the Seaſon was ſo far advanced that he imagin'd the Lake would be full of Ice, before he could return; and therefore he deferr'd his Journey; and I ſuppoſe is ſetting out from the Fort at Number Four about this Time.

The French not only employ the Indians in Alliance with them to diſturb our Settlements, but are likewiſe endeavouring to draw off to their Intereſt the Six-Nations, the antient Allies of the Engliſh, and to engage them againſt us.---I ſhall order to be laid before you a Letter on this Subject, which I have received from his Excellency Governor Clinton; by which you will perceive he propoſes to meet thoſe Indians at Albany the firſt Week in June next; and deſires the other Governments to join with New-York, in endeavouring to remove the ill Impreſſions that have been made by the French.

It is the Unhappineſs of the Engliſh Governments, that ſome of them look upon themſelves to be no Ways concern'd with this Affair, and will not join with the Reſt in their Meaſures againſt the continual Attempts of our Rivals: On the other Hand the French, tho' ſo much inferior to the Engliſh, have a juſt Senſe of their Intereſt, ſteadily purſue it, and are ſucceſsful in their Endeavours, continually drawing off the Indians from our Friendſhip, and inſtilling into their Minds Prejudices againſt us. I acknowledge we are not ſo immediately concerned as the Governments of New-York and Pennſylvania; but yet the Defection of thoſe Nations would in its Conſequences extremely affect not only this Province, but the whole Britiſh Intereſt in America: I therefore recommend this Affair to your ſerious Conſideration.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

You will find that there are greater Demands on the Treaſury than your laſt Supply will anſwer; and I doubt not you will think it needful to make further Proviſion.

Gentlemen of the Council and Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I ſhall chearfully concur with you in any good and wholeſome Laws or Orders that may be neceſſary for the further Encouragement of Induſtry and Frugality, for increaſing the Produce and Manufacture, and for regulating the Trade of the Province.

S. PHIPS.

A Letter from Mr. Enoch Titcomb, dated Newbury, January 10.

"On Monday the 7th Inſt. the Sloop Dolphin, bound from Rhode-Iſland to Boſton, Simeon Mirick, Maſter, was drove aſhore on Plumb-Iſland in Newbury, in a violent Storm, and the Sloop wreck'd, the Cargo moſtly ſaved, which conſiſted chiefly of Tar, Turpentine and Proviſions: The Maſter Simeon Mirick, the Pilot John Sadler, and Benajah Bill were frozen to Death after they got aſhore: One Man's Life was ſaved, who ſays the Sloop belongs to Mr. Thomas Noyes of Stonington.---The dead Men were decently buried this Day.

BOSTON, January 7.

A few Nights ago (it being very cold) a young Man belonging to a Veſſel in this Town, having made a Charcoal Fire in the Cabbin, ſhut the Companion Door, and went to Sleep, but afterwards finding himſelf almoſt ſuffocated with the Steam or Vapour (as is ſuppoſed) attempted to get to the Door for Air, but being bewilder'd, fell down, and the next Morning was found dead, with one of his Arms a-croſs the Charcoal Pot, almoſt burnt off.

Jan. 14. We hear from Hartfort Eaſt Preciné, that on Tueſday the 11th of laſt Month, Mr. Canada of that Place was digging a Well, and when he had got about 50 Feet deep, he ſuddenly cry'd out for Help; whereupon a young Man named Deming, went down to his Aſſiſtance, but before he could get to him, the Well cav'd in upon him, and bury'd him about his Middle; a Rope was thrown down for his Help, but the Well ſtill caving in, ſtifled them both; and it was eight Days and Nights before their dead Bodies could be found.

Gloceſter (or Cape Anne) Jan. 8. Yeſterday in the Snow Storm, between 4 and 5 in the Afternoon, ſome part of a large Veſſel came aſhore at the Head of the Cape; whether ſhe was a Ship, Snow, or Brigantine, is not yet known, but judg'd to be the former. None of the Men are yet found.---It is a Horſe's Head that is come aſhore, painted Yellow: There is alſo ſome Logwood and Fuſtick, or Red-wood, ſo called, come aſhore.

Since the Date of the above, we hear a Wheel to ſteer with, and ſundry other Things are come aſhore.

In the ſame Storm, a Brigantine from Liſbon, Capt. Calley, was caſt away near Cohaſſet, and one Man drowned. 'Tis ſaid the Veſſel and Cargo are entirely loſt.

Extract of a Letter from Halifax, dated Dec. 22. 1750.

"We have no Snow here at all, nor but a very little this Win-; but the Weather ſomething cold.---This Week a Schooner with French Rum was ſeized for the King.---Mr. Cleve- is well pleaſing to the Governor; and his Excellency he gives us Ground, and builds us a Meeting Houſe

Account of the Burials and Baptiſms, it appears -50. to Jan. 1750-1. there have been buWhites, and 97 Blacks. Baptiz'd in the ſeveral Churches, 533. Our laſt Years Account ſtands thus. Buried Whites 581, Blacks 96. Baptized in the ſeveral Churches, 493.

NEW-YORK, January 28.

Laſt Monday Night and Tueſday Morning, we had here a very violent Gale of Wind at South Eaſt, which has done conſiderable Damage to ſeveral Veſſels and Craft being at our Wharfs; --and had not the Wind ſuddenly chop'd about, to the Weſt, as it did, a few Hours before High-Water, and check'd the Tides, in all Appearance, moſt of the Wharfs would have been quite overflow'd.

We hear that in the above Storm, a Rhode-Iſland Sloop, from St. Kitts, was caſt away near Sandy Hook: the Men ſaved, and only eight or ten Caſks of Rum of the Cargo; but have not yet heard the Name of Veſſel or Maſter.

Within this Week paſt, we hear there have been ſeveral Attempts made by ſome unknown Perſons to rob Houſes in this City; but ſo good a Look out has been obſerv'd, that they have not been able to accompliſh their Deſigns, any farther than putting ſome People into a Fright.

Extract of a Letter from Hallifax, dated December 17. 1750.

Four Days ago the Country Sloop arrived from Chinecto, by whom we learn, that about the Middle of laſt Month, a Party of our Men went out to cut Wood, with twelve arm'd Men to guard them; notwithſtanding which the Indians found Means to fall upon them, and took three of them Priſoners, beſides ſcalping three more; two of which had their Heads cut off; the other made his Eſcape to the Fort, after his Scalp was off, and is in a likely Way to recover:---'Tis ſaid the Indians conſtantly keep ſculking about that Place; tho', thank God, they don't much trouble us here.---This Day the Ship Bellamour ſailed from this Place for Cadiz, with 5000 Quintals of good merchantable Fiſh on board. Every Thing goes on briſkly here, and I believe we are almoſt as populous with Men as New-York.

PHILADELPHIA, February 5.

Tueſday laſt John Morris was indicted for breaking into the Houſe of Philip Pederow, of this City Shopkeeper, on the 13th of laſt Month, in the Night, and feloniouſly taking from thence ſundry Goods; to which Indictment he pleaded Guilty.

Then Elizabeth Robinſon, Francis M'Coy, Mary M'Coy, his Wife, and John Crow, were indicted as being Acceſſories with ſaid John Morris before the above Robbery was committed; who all pleaded Not Guilty.

And John Stinſon was indicted for being an Acceſſory to Morris after the Fact, in ſcreening him from Juſtice, by ſecreting him in his houſe, knowing him to be the Felon; that a Reward was offer'd for the apprehending of him; and that the Sheriff and his Officers, &c. were in Purſuit of him: To which he alſo pleaded Not Guilty.

The Court then proceeded with the Examination of the Witneſſes, when the Proof appear'd ſo ſtrong and clear, that the Jury very readily return'd their Verdict Guilty againſt all of them, Mary M'Coy excepted, being ſuppoſed to act by the Coertion of her Huſband.

The next Day John Morris, Elizabeth Robinſon, Francis M'Coy, and John Crow, receiv'd Sentence of Death: And John Stinſon was burnt in the Hand. Before the Honourable the Chief Juſtice pronounced the Sentence, he made a moſt affecting Speech, exceedingly well adapted to the unhappy Occaſion. And we hear they will be executed To-morrow Week.

ANDREW LAMB,

Is removed to Mr. Abraham Taylor's Alley, near Second-ſtreet, which was formerly a ſchool with good conveniencies, and continues to qualify youth for buſineſs, &c. viz.

WRiting, arithmetick, vulgar and decimal, merchants accounts, the Italian method, by double entry, Dr. and Cr. the only true way that is now uſed; Navigation in all its parts, both theory and practice, viz. Geometry, Trigonometry, Plain-ſailing; Traverſe, Mercator, and Parallel Sailing; Coaſting, Bearing and Diſtance of Land, and Current Sailing. All theſe geometrically, logorithmically and inſtrumentally performed. Not the practice, which is the main thing intended; and here I give you a complete journal from the Lizard to the Rock of Liſbon, with lee-way and variation allowed each courſe, and rules to apply them, and an amplitude at ſun riſing or ſetting, and applied to the eaſt and weſt variation; this is one of the journals that I kept in Liſbon, and is therefore recommended to all ingenious artiſts, as a pattern for any other voyage; and I can ſhew ſeveral journals of my own works to the American plantations, and one from England to Cape Henlopen, in 28 days, 1748. And to make mercator-charts in a new and eaſy method, and to work any journal in them, which makes a traverſe in the mercator charts, and is proved ſo exact in the proportions in mercators ſailing, by the latitudes and longitudes every day at noon; and ſheweth the plain tract which the ſhip made the whole voyage, and a true method to correct all journals, and bring the ſhip ſafely to the deſired port, which is the only thing intended by a good journal. Alſo Surveying, Gauging, Dialling, Spherical Geometry, Trigonometry in all the various caſes, Great Circle-Sailing, applied in ſeveral problems, which proves the meridional parts in mercators ſailing to a fair demonſtration; with the application of all in the moſt uſeful and neceſſary problems of great variety of aſtronomy. All theſe are carefully taught and diligently attended, by ANDREW LAMB.

N. B. I teach in their own houſes at certain hours, when deſired, with due attendance and diligence. I have above 30 years experience in teaching both the theory and practice of navigation.

Sailors, take a friend's advice, be not cheated by land-men, who pretend to navigation; for they know nothing of a ſea-journal, which is the principal thing you want to know, and the uſe of the charts: My ſcholars are qualified to go mates the firſt voyage, bring me a good account of their journals. T. b. c. 6 m.
